KILLED BY TRAIN WATCHING GAME

Popular Altar Boy Tossed into the Air by the Knickerbocker Express in the West End.

Alexander Kulhavy, 14 years of age, was struck by the Knickerbocker express near the 11th bridge in the West End Saturday afternoon and instantly killed. The boy stopped on the railroad track to watch a game of polo in progress on the ice near by. He discovered his danger too late and was thrown high in the air by the train. His skull was fractured, his neck broken and his left foot cut off. The train was stopped and the body was taken on board. It was removed to Bourke & Bourke's morgue and later to Polke's undertaking room. The boy lived with his father, Julius Kulhavy, at 267 Spruce street. He was employed at the factory of the Bryant Electric Co. in the West End. He was an altar boy at St. Stephen's Hungarian Catholic church. He leaves two sisters, Lizzie and Wilma, and a brother, Louis. The boy had been attacked by three men and was being held by his father there and returned by way of the railroad track. Deceased was popular in the church and with a large circle of friends.

CASTORIA The Kind You Have Always Bought

$1,000 FOR SUFFERERS

AMOUNT REALIZED BY COLLECTIONS IN LOCAL CATHOLIC CHURCHES YESTERDAY.

In answer to the appeal sent to all the Roman Catholic Churches throughout the world by Pope Pius X, and announced on New Year's day, collections were taken up in all the churches yesterday at every mass. In Bridgeport a little over $1,000 was raised. The Sacred Heart church contributed a contribution of $229. The other large Catholic churches contributed about $200 each. The funds have been forwarded to the Episcopal residence at a generous gift of charity immediately cabled to Rome. The exact sum to be sent from the Catholic churches of the United States will not be known for several days.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH RESPONDS TO CALL OF PASTOR

At the morning services of the First Presbyterian church yesterday, Rev. John MacLaren Richardson took charge of the congregation for the first time. The new pastor was introduced by a large attendance and after services was congratulated by members of the church upon his sermon. A collection was urged for the sufferers in Sicily and lower Italy, the pastor making it clear that the church ought to pursue a broad policy of liberal and loving brotherhood and that it would delight him if his pastorate was inaugurated with a generous gift of charity for the sufferers. The sum of $143.50 was raised. In the evening Rev. Richardson spoke on the text: "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth will draw all men unto me."

MITCHELL DIES AND CARRIES HIS SECRET WITH HIM

Struck Him But Refused to Tell His Friends.

John Mitchell the Bohemian who was stabbed in the head on Christmas eve on the corner of Pembroke and Willard streets by unknown parties died at the Bridgeport Hospital Saturday night from meningitis caused by inflammation from the wound. The wound was dressed at the Emergency hospital the next day after the stabbing occurred. Dr. Ives took two stitches in the wound. Mitchell did not return to have the wound dressed. Last Wednesday the case was reported to Alexander Morrissey, investigator for the charities department and he found the man in semi-conscious state. Mitchell was removed to the Bridgeport hospital where trephining was resorted to. The operation disclosed an inflammation of the brain matter. The knife had penetrated the skull. The autopsy performed by Medical examiner F. B. Downs established these conditions.

At the time Dr. Ives dressed his wound Mitchell gave his name as Charles Meyer and refused to say who had struck him. He never told anyone who the parties were but affirmed repeatedly that he knew them and would get even. He said that while standing on the corner of Pembroke and Willard streets on the night mentioned he had been attacked by three men one of whom struck him on the head with a knife "playfully" as he said at the time. A number of stories have been in circulation about the locality where he was stabbed. He boarded with Chris Schick on Reilly street. He told Mr. Schick the same story he had told at the Emergency hospital was 25 years of age and a tailor by trade. He had no relatives in this country.

The police have been unable to get any clue to the murderers for the result of Mitchell's injuries has made that charge tenable. It is not believed that the guilty parties will ever be apprehended.

CASHIER REINHART ON TRIAL TODAY

ACCUSED OF EMBEZZLING OVER $1,000,000 OF BANK'S FUNDS.

(Special from United Press.)
Pittsburgh, Jan. 4.—After a delay of a little over 26 months J. E. F. Reinhardt, cashier of the National Bank of Commerce, was brought to trial in the United States court here. He is charged with embezzling over $1,000,000 of the bank's funds. There are 12 indictments against Reinhardt and he has been quoted as saying that he would be $100,000 he would not be convicted on one of them. Several days will probably be consumed in selecting a jury.

LABOR UNIONISTS ADOPT RESOLUTIONS

OF SYMPATHY AND SUPPORT FOR GOMPERS, MITCHELL AND MORRISON.

(Special from United Press.)
San Francisco, Jan. 4.—Labor leaders in this city to-day forwarded to Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison the resolutions of sympathy and support adopted at a meeting last night of 4,000 labor unionists. The meeting was addressed by several of the best labor speakers on the Pacific coast. All the speakers and the audience expressed strong opposition to the plan of asking for a pardon for the three men sentenced to jail for "conspiracy of contempt" by Justice Wright of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. It was determined to fight for a reversal of the sentence.

THE THEATRES

POLI'S

The "Love Waltz" Jesse L. Lasky's superb $10,000 opera presented at Poli's this week with the initial performance to-day. Not in years has an attraction of this scope and magnitude been presented in a vaudeville house on our circuit. It is a gigantic stride indeed from the old time to-person sketch teams down to a company including 25 artists, carrying a carload of special scenery and costume effects, its own musical director, attaches, etc. "The Love Waltz" is a Viennese opera of the type of the "Merry Widow" and destined to create a great furor in vaudeville as its sister opera did in the realms of the legitimate stage. Magnificent costuming and musical features, superb staging, and many other features that combined to make the striking "Merry Widow" success are incorporated in the "Love Waltz." Miss Audrey Maple, the prettiest girl in vaudeville has a leading part in the great opera. Mr. Alfred Keppeler, a handsome young actor of the Donald Brian type works opposite to Miss Maple in the great waltz scene and 18-minute kiss. A magnificent chorus of trained voices, and pretty girls is a striking feature of the "Love Waltz."

An absolutely meritorious post-holiday bill is ready for Poli's patrons this week. One of the best features is the original vaudeville Salome dance given by Bert Knapp and Jessie Brown, a fascinating sketch team, giving for the first time in vaudeville an original version of the famous New York and European sensation, "Salome." Martin and Maximilian, the uproariously funny burlesque magicians present a comedy novelty that is irresistible. Otto Bros., those amazingly accurate comedians, will add to the big laughs this week. A great arena exhibition will be given as a closing feature by Ella Bradna and Fred Derrick, world-famous bareback riders, and for six consecutive years the big equestrian feature with the Barnum & Bailey shows at Madison Square Garden. Josephine Davis, dainty and winsome confidante, will be seen in a charming singing character skit. Damn Bros., vaudeville's best known comedy gymnasts and acrobats present a genuine pleasing novelty in their act. The complete bill will round out a thoroughly splendid bill.

Several indicated a desire to live a Christian life at the close of the service. These meetings will be continued on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights, special attention being given to the music. On Tuesday evening, Mrs. Robert Douglas Martin will sing, by special request, "Face to Face With Christ My Saviour."

PREDICTED VOLCANIC ERUPTION

PROF. PERRET OF SPRINGFIELD FORETOLD A DISTURBANCE AT MT. ETNA.

(Special from United Press.)
Springfield, Mass., Jan. 4.—Professor Frank A. Perret, the expert in volcanology, whose work is being supported by the Volcanic Research Society of Springfield, is thought to be either at the scene of the catastrophe in the neighborhood of Mt. Etna, or at Naples, preparing for an expedition from which much is expected. Professor Perret left here December 10 for Naples with the purpose of going to Etna as soon as there were evidence of the volcanic activity which he had expected and had publicly prophesied. In a letter to the secretary of the society he said:

"My observations show that a great eruption of Mt. Etna—probably the greatest in 300 years—is impending."

Don't Blame Your Stomach

When Without Exertion Or Cost You Can Enjoy Meals and Cure Dyspepsia.

Don't blame your stomach or your luck when your meals declare war on your system. When the stomach won't do its work it is because it cannot. When foul smelling odors come from your stomach, when the head aches and the sourness of mouth every morning makes you hate your breakfast, when dreams and nightmare assail you, don't give up the fight. This is the appeal of nature, and it should be heard. Overeating, late suppers, poorly chewed food, too rich pastries and undigestible cooking are some of the causes of the stomach's ill health. When the stomach is busy, it presses and churns all the liquid matter from food and with its juices dissolves into liquid form or pulp everything which comes into it. If such food be poisonous it affects the juices, attacks the stomach, goes into the blood and weakens the entire system. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest a full meal easily without material assistance from the stomach. They restore the gastric fluid with all the elements needed. They build up the blood, destroy sour taste bad breath, belching, stomach and bowels trouble, and quickly restore natural conditions. One grain of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of food in the stomach or in a glass vial without aid of the human digestive apparatus. The methods of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the methods of Nature. They contain every requisite for the stomach and digestion. After a meal one of these little tablets when it enters the stomach mingles with the juices, attacks the food and digests it and it removes the fermented and decayed mass lying stagnant there and eases the stomach at once. It is wholly a question for you to solve. Your druggist will furnish Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets 50c the box, or send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package free. Address, F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

SMITH'S.

One of the important dramatic events of the present season is the production of the new American play, "Bienerhasset," which will have its first local presentation this evening. No character in American history presents a better study for the pen of the dramatist than Aaron Burr the central figure of this play. His career was marked by such romantic incidents, such intense contrasts, and such vicissitudes that it may be doubted if fiction ever presented a greater or more fascinating character for the purpose of stage portraiture. Burr before and after his quarrel with Hamilton presents two widely differing phases of his character and in this play he is seen in both. Beginning on the evening of the meeting with his rival and enemy, Hamilton, the events which led to the fatal encounter on the field of honor at Weehawken are shown in a series of stage episodes of startling intensity and realistic fidelity.

A splendid dramatic treat will be given our Italian population Tuesday evening, in the appearance of Antonio Maori in the new Italian actor, with his own company, in the sensational drama, "The Mysteries of Paris." Mr. Maori is at the head of his profession in his particular style, and his performances are always enjoyable to those who understand them. The performance will be entirely in Italian, and there will doubtless be a large attendance to see him in this strong play.

Celebrating its fourth successful season, Cohen & Harris' famous musical play, "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway," comes Wednesday evening, Scott Welch, as "Kid Burns," heads the cast. That never tiresome picture of home life in New Rochelle, New York, which gave George M. Cohan an opportunity for the full play of his facile pen and his trenchant wit, and his genius for dramatic construction, is as vivid and pleasing a picture in the eyes of all audiences to-day as it was during the long run of this production in New York City. Some of the best songs are "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway," "So Long, Mary," and "Mary Is a Grand Old Name." There is a chorus of beautiful girls who have been taught to dance under the personal direction of the great artist himself, George M. Cohan. The cast includes Scott Welch, Miss Frances Gordon and Elizabeth Drew, Mary E. Cahan, Susan Chisholm, Eugene MacGregor, James A. Davett, Harry Gwynette, James H. Manning and twenty others.

Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

day, with a special Saturday matinee. William A. Brady and Joseph R. Grimmer's production, "The Man of the Hour," will be seen and as the theatergoers have heard and read so much of this great play, there is no doubt standing room will be at a premium. The company to be seen here is said to be exceptionally strong, being the same that was seen during the notable runs of the play in New York, Chicago and Boston. The original production will also be shown. Seats are now on sale.

REVIVAL SERVICES

Begun Last Night at Washington Park

M. E. Church.

A large audience was present last night at the opening of the revival services at the Washington Park Methodist Episcopal church, on Noble avenue. These were singing by the body chorus and ladies' chorus in addition to the regular quartet. The pastor, Charles Elmore Barto, spoke on "Life's Great Struggle" from the text, "All flesh is as grass and all the glory of man as the flower of the grass." The pastor closed with an appeal to those present to believe in Jesus Christ and trust him. He said that the body might die, the soul might live forever in the mansions which Jesus has gone to prepare.

Rev. David E. Meyers, pastor of the First Baptist church of Stratford, and his friends in and out of the church are much aggrieved over the report that he has been accused of indiscretions. He has demanded that the truth concerning his presence at the home of U. S. Mitchell on Saturday Dec. 26 be published. He denies certain of the statements made in the article of last Thursday in which the affair was described.

Mr. Meyers said last night: "The statement that my affection had centered on Miss Mitchell is untrue. I was not working in the neighborhood when Mr. Mitchell passed. I stopped at Mitchell's store to get something to eat. Mr. Mitchell did not threaten me in any way, but he said nothing to me when he came in with the gun. I did not 'fly' when Mr. Mitchell entered but stayed here and was the last to leave the house at the time. Mrs. Mitchell did not struggle with Mr. Mitchell for possession of the gun. I was not there when Sheriff Stagg arrived. Mrs. Mitchell is not a member of my church, but I have stopped there many times but only to trade and have never been in Mrs. Mitchell's company except at some public gathering. Since the trouble, Mr. Mitchell has come to me personally and has apologized for the way he used me at that time. He had no reason for any suspicious and acknowledged that he had no right to suspect me of anything. He said he had always found me a gentleman. He invited me to his house and I have been there several times since."

Dr. George Carter, an old resident and a highly esteemed citizen said in the presence of Mr. Meyers that he had met Mitchell soon after the trouble and that Mitchell had said that all the trouble came through his excitement. "It was all a mistake and everything was over as far as he was concerned."

The statements of Rev. Mr. Meyers and Dr. Carter were read to Mr. Mitchell in their presence and he endorsed them fully. He said: "The statements of Rev. Mr. Meyers and Dr. Carter are correct in every way. Mr. Meyers and I are the best of friends. I have nothing against him. That was a false alarm that's all."

Peace reigns in the Mitchell household. Rev. Mr. Meyers has been exonerated and his parishioners are satisfied that he is guilty of no wrong doing. Mr. Mitchell has withdrawn every charge and the episode is closed.
